Why a Modern Reading?

You may have noticed in recent weeks that a Modern Reading has been incorporated into our worship services. The purpose of the Modern Reading is to serve as a tangible reminder that God is still speaking today. As United Methodists, we believe our faith is formed through scripture, tradition, reason, and experience. God is still blessing us with reasoned voices who draw from spiritual tradition and their own lived experiences to illuminate a deeper meaning of Scripture and to draw us into a deeper understanding of our faith. Hearing their words read aloud in addition to scripture each Sunday draws us into the tapestry of voices past and present that God uses to shape us in our discipleship journeys. For we are all shaped in community. We give thanks for these voices. And, we honor these voices, trusting God uses them to speak life-giving mercy to our lives today.
